1. During the last week of March, three Russian commissions visited the Elektrobau in Sonderhausen. The commissions were the same as those whose arrival at the Raabe Institute in Bleicherode directly preceded the dissolution of the Institute and the transfer of its personnel to the USSR.
2. The Elektrobau recently completed equipping three laboratory and launching trains which have been sent off to the East. It is now working on equipment for launching units for the C-2 ("Wassertall"), composed of ten large four-axel trucks built by the Waggonfabrik Gehr. Schumann, Merlau (Saxony). The first of these trucks is expected to be ready for the road test in the near future. The "Wassertall" itself is being built in Russia by engineers formerly with the Raabe Institute.
